FROM THE EDITORS

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are pleased to bring you the September 2025 Divine Love Newsletter. May the articles, stories, and community updates inspire your spiritual journey and provide you with tools to grow in God's Divine Love together with your fellow seekers.

In this issue:

- The Incarnation of the Soul – Ron Shoemaker reflects on the teachings received through James Padgett about the purpose of incarnation. He explores the soul as two halves—male and female, its unblemished state before incarnation, and the influence parents have on their child's spiritual development. Ron concludes with insights into the prayer phrase "Keep us in the shadow of Thy Love every hour and moment of our lives." In that prayer, we are asking that the qualities of God's Love, such as compassion, forgiveness, and empathy, influence our spiritual growth and qualities so that we are continually becoming more at one with the Great Soul's Love.
- Soulmates and the Journey of Awakening – Tim Foley shares an excerpt from an address he gave at Golden Gate Church in San Francisco. He discusses how the two halves of a soul incarnate at different times, sometimes meeting on earth, sometimes not, yet ultimately recognizing one another in the spirit world. He emphasizes that God, in His Love, designed us to experience joy rather than loneliness.
- Our Main Focus in Life: Living in Love – Shirl Henry, Eva Peck, and Terry Adler remind us that no matter how busy or burdened we may feel, our most important task each day is to love. Focusing on being in a state of Love is a form of prayer for Divine Love and God's Kingdom, and everything else flows more smoothly.
- You Make a Difference – Denise Pilgrim encourages us to never think of ourselves as insignificant. Each of us is a quiet light in the world, bringing comfort and hope to those we encounter.
- The Divine Love Sanctuary Estate – Beth Bleaden asks for prayers and support in establishing Divine Love Community sanctuaries around the world. These centers would welcome seekers of spiritual truth, provide fellowship, and cultivate self-sufficiency through growing food on dedicated land.
- Deciphering Padgett's Writings with AI – Artto Aunap shares his discovery that AI tools, such as ChatGPT, can transcribe James Padgett's scanned handwritten messages – an exciting step forward as technology continues to evolve.
- Retreat Reflections: A Week of Light – Elaine Cheung describes her experiences at the Divine Love Mediumship Development Retreat, where participants received deeply personal messages – some gentle, some profound – that touched their souls and life journeys.
- Poetry Corner – Alexander and Eva Peck contribute their poem, "Cherish the Present Moment."

THE INCARNATION OF THE SOUL (RON SHOEMAKER)

In Vol. 2 of the Padgett messages (True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus), p. 252, insights are presented regarding the soul's condition before its incarnation. "The soul was created by the Father long before its appearance in the flesh," Jesus explains, "and awaited such incarnation for the purpose only of giving it an individuality, which it did not have in its preexistence, and in which it has a duplex personality – male and female – that is needed to be separated and made individual."

On p. 253, Luke states, "The soul, in its existence prior to becoming an indweller in the mortal body, has a consciousness of its existence and of its relationship to God and to other parts of the Great Soul, and more especially of the duplex character of its being; ... in the way that they are united, constitutes the one complete soul."

Continuing the discussion in Vol. 1, p. 14, "The love with which man was endowed, ... enables him ... to love God and to love his fellow man as himself, for this natural love," Jesus declares, "is one that in its perfection and nature is universal and in its exercise every man is his neighbor's brother." He further comments on pp. 15-16, "When He created man, He gave him a free will ... Man may exercise his free will as he desires and as his thoughts and appetites may influence him."

Each soul is composed of two parts, male and female. Together they make one complete soul. The natural love that souls are given at creation is universal and enables them to love their God and each other the same way they would like to be loved. Each soul, male and female, is given a free will to exercise its appetites and desires. Each part of the soul is waiting for the opportunity to incarnate. The reason for the incarnation and becoming an Earthling is that the male and female parts of the complete soul need to separate and become individualized. Once this is completed, their purpose for earthly life – long or short – has been realized.

In the beginning, when the first parents were Earthlings, there were only two humans on Earth. But over an unknown number of Earth's revolutions around the sun, humankind has multiplied and spread across the habitable areas of the planet. In their preexistence, all souls are destined to incarnate. As humankind continues to populate the Earth in ever greater numbers, the availability of human receptacles has increased allowing more souls to incarnate and become Earthlings.

Jesus explains in Vol. 2, p. 234, "The soul becomes individualized the moment it finds its lodgement in the receptacle prepared by the laws of nature in using the human father and mother as its instruments." Then on p. 240 of the same Volume, Luke adds, "A man is not only the parent of a child's material body but in a secondary way is also the parent of its spiritual nature, and the condition of the parent's spiritual nature influences and determines to a large extent the qualities and tendencies of the child's nature for good or evil, not only while it is a mortal but frequently after it has ceased to inhabit the veil of flesh. So let parents know, that they do not live to themselves alone as mortals, but that their evil thoughts and good deeds have a greater or lesser influence upon the spiritual natures of their children, especially at the time of conception and during gestation." So, not only are the parents important in the creation of a physical receptacle, but they also influence their child's spiritual nature. Each parent casts a shadow of their spiritual qualities around their offspring. When a child goes to school, the shadow of the teacher, classmates and others will also influence the child's spiritual growth. Organizations such as churches and political groups too will cast their shadows of influence.

At the time of incarnation, the only thing that seems to be important is that a human receptacle is available and a soul is ready to become an Earthling. The parents are needed to create the receptacle. It doesn't seem to be important what their religious views are, what the family's social status is, or whether they are rich or poor. Where they will reside on the Earth seems to present no problem. Whether the receptacle will be disease free or whether its appearance will be attractive seems to be of no concern. No mention is made of skin color. The only thing that is critical is that a receptacle is available.

Jesus explains in Vol. 2, p. 234, "the soul as thus individualized is subject to the various influences that surround it in its mortal life, and these influences may be retarding, deadly or destructive to the progress of the soul." In Vol. 2, p. 341, Jesus further writes, "Men are constituted with a mind and soul, each having its own perceptions and ability to comprehend the truth." The home and culture I am born into will provide me with values and what it means to be successful. It will give me a language so that I can effectively communicate with others. As I absorb the ideas and insights of my culture, I will be influenced to form my mindset and worldview. My mindset may or may not be in harmony with the desires of my soul's natural love.

During the soul's preexistence, its natural love was without blemish. Within the shadow of natural love's perfection and its universality, the inclination would be to treat others the same way you would like to be treated. But with the incarnation and establishing the soul's individuality, the soul becomes an Earthling with a mindset, subject to all the "temptations of the flesh", and the influences of "the pleasures and allurements of this world," as we read in the Prayer Perfect.

In Vol. 2, p. 240, Luke seeks to clarify, "As these first parents created these evils ... their sins by the influence which they have upon the spiritual nature at the time of conception and birth become as it were, a visitation and that is the spiritual desires and tendencies and inclinations toward that which is evil." He goes on to mention that these desires and tendencies may continue for a long time after a child's birth.

As an Earthling, will I create a mindset that will be in harmony with the desires of my natural love or will it be founded on some other hope, such as the need to acquire political power or the influence that comes with the acquisition of money and material goods? As an Earthling, I will have to face this conundrum and decide where I will focus my time and energy. Will I devote my efforts to something I can take with me when I am no longer an Earthling or will I have to leave the results of my efforts all behind?

Every being casts their shadow, influencing those that are nearby. My dog casts her shadow which is always one of forgiveness, even when I am upset with her because of her behavior. The Great Soul casts His shadows throughout all of reality. In The Prayer, when we ask Him to "Keep us in the shadow of Thy love every hour and moment of our lives," we are asking that the qualities of His Love, such as compassion, forgiveness, and empathy, influence our spiritual growth and qualities so that we continually become more at one with the Great Soul's Love. In doing so, we too will be able to cast on others a shadow of love, with compassion, empathy, and forgiveness.

SOULMATES AND THE JOURNEY OF AWAKENING (TIM FOLEY)

The following is an excerpt from an address given at Golden Gate Church, San Francisco, CA:

What about soulmates? Do they exist? In reality, or merely as a figment of imagination with “dating site” subscribers? Padgett message researchers say, “Yes, soulmates are real.” According to the prophet Samuel and others, the un-incarnated souls are actually whole souls consisting of two halves. They are separated at the time of one of the halves’ incarnation into a human embryo. The other half follows relatively soon after, but because spirits do not know time, this can be decades later. Whether they will meet and recognize each other here on earth is not predetermined. It occasionally happens, but is rare in these densely populated areas of our planet. Or put another way: No one knows.

What is known is that at some point in time, either on earth or in the spirit world, the two mates or halves will meet and recognize one another. They will begin working together to equalize their spiritual development, so as to live together in the same sphere and go on from there to progression as one complete soul. It is also written that, “the two parts never lose their interrelationship, or the binding qualities that existed before their separation, and which continue to exist thereafter (until they) will come together again and reunite in a complete one.”

It might take a long time in the spirit world before one or the other is recognized and takes steps to reunite with its soulmate. This is often the case when the two halves are not in harmony as pertains to the development and condition of their individual souls. But eventually it will happen. It is an example of God’s care and mercy toward us and His plan for our happiness, and another example of the marvelous capabilities of the human soul. And, I might add, it gives us hope for the future—to look forward to reuniting with our one and only soulmate!

Image created with AI (ChatGPT / DALL·E)

In addition, according to another of God’s laws of mercy, we read this:

Following incarnation of one of the halves, “the soul which remains as well as the soul that enters the human embryo loses its consciousness of having been (only) a part of one complete soul, and of its relationship to the other part of that soul! Why? This is the Father’s way of providing for that soul, so that while continuing on in its pristine existence, it will not become lonely or unhappy.”

Providing for our happiness by creating us together with our soulmates and ordaining a path to our re-uniting and sharing our lives together are examples of our loving Father’s mercy and divine generosity in addition to his greatest gift, Divine Love. These are all the more reasons for our thankfulness, as expressed in this short prayer: “We thank Thee Father for Thy Love and the sacred privilege of receiving It.”

OUR MAIN FOCUS IN LIFE: LIVING IN LOVE (COMPILATION: SHIRL HENRY, EVA PECK, TERRY ADLER)

For some time, I've been experimenting with something. Often when I first wake up, my mind begins to swirl with all the worldly things to do and worry about. I started praying and telling myself that my most important thing to do today is Love. That's all I really need to focus on. Love in every thought. Love in every word. Love in all my actions. I remind myself many times a day and check in to stay on course. What I'm finding is that other things in my life seem to fall into place with little effort. It all comes back to Love.

Focusing on being in a state of Love through each day is the same as seeking the Celestial Kingdom of God, which is the same as seeking and praying for the Divine Love whereby we will experience soul transformation, the new heart and new birth. It is all interconnected and the most important thing to focus on. We are promised that all else will be taken care of.

That is the answer – commit to being the love, living the love, each day! That is within our power and capacity. And that will change the conditions of this world, one person, one choice at a time.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE (DENISE PILGRIM)

There are those in this world who are the most amazing people and don't even know it. They go quietly about their day, gently shining their light wherever they go with their kindness of heart in abundance. They draw little attention to themselves, yet are doing the greatest of service to mankind. Many seek their company and don't even know why. They are the quiet ones, the shining ones. They shine from within their soul with a loving presence, and a radiance that brings a smile and upliftment to all around them, and would be sorely missed if they were not here. Never think that you are insignificant in this world, for you do make a difference – the difference between calm and chaos. You are the quiet light that shines in the darkness, and play a big part in the lives of many, bringing comfort to the lives of all who are passing by.

THE DIVINE LOVE SANCTUARY ESTATE (BETH BLEADEN)

We are a small group from the Divine Love Community interested in setting up sanctuaries around the world. We envisage them as communities with a few permanent residents who would welcome visitors of all faiths or none interested in helping others or needing help. We hope to grow much of our food so are looking for properties with land, or a piece of land preferably at least five acres where we can build what will be needed. The sanctuaries will be prayerful communities where others can learn about Divine Love and the beautiful relationship available to them with their Creator. At present we are looking to set up our first sanctuary in Canada, the US, the UK, Barbados, or Trinidad.

We have prayed for several months about this project and received helpful guidance through channelled messages about how to proceed. We respectfully ask for your prayers too as we plan for the future.

If you would like to join our planning group, have a property or land which might be suitable for a sanctuary, or would like to help finance our project, please get in touch with Debra Taylor or Beth Bleaden with details of how you might be able to help us.

DECIPHERING PADGETT'S WRITINGS WITH AI (ARTTO AUNAP)

I was wondering if ChatGPT (an AI tool) could decipher scanned handwritten texts received by James Padgett and turn them into editable digital form. So, I let it detect one of the scanned messages to see what would happen. Here is a part of my conversation with ChatGPT and the result of my request:

Artto: "Hey, I wonder if you can help me with an interesting task – detecting handwriting and helping to turn that into digital text from an image I would send?"

ChatGPT: Yes — I can definitely help with that. If you send me the image containing the handwriting, I can process it with OCR (optical character recognition) tuned for handwritten text, then extract the words into editable digital text for you.

I can also:

- Clean up the image first to improve recognition accuracy (contrast, noise removal, etc.).
- Preserve formatting such as line breaks or bullet points if the handwriting has structure.
- Flag words that are unclear so you can double-check them.

Do you want me to aim for maximum accuracy (even if it means guessing uncertain words) or exact transcription (including notes where it's unclear)?

Artto: It's an original scanned document of James E. Padgett's automatic handwriting, received a letter from his wife Helen from spirit.

ChatGPT: Here's the transcription of the handwriting from your image, keeping line breaks close to the original while making it readable:

I am here, Your own true and loving Helen
Well dear, I was with you to-day as you laid the mortal remains of baby in the grave, and for the last time saw her as she appeared to you in the flesh. I know how much you loved her as your baby of earth and how sorrowful it was for you to part with even her poor little body; but you must remember that when she was placed in the grave — that is her body — her dear self did not accompany that body, but stood beside you and watching, interested in the last glimpse of what was apparently herself, and loving you with all her soul. Yes, she was there and wants so much to tell you not to grieve, but to believe that she was still alive, with a heart full of love. —

I of course was with her, and tried to show her how useless your grief was, and also how much you loved your baby; and she understood and sympathized with you and with Ward and with the others. She says, she is so anxious to write you and herself tell you that she is still your Meta and more alive

Do you want me to also produce a cleaned-up modernized version for easier reading, or keep it exactly as originally written for historical accuracy?

Artto: Nah, let's keep it exactly as it is :) You did an awesome job on this!"

A WEEK OF LIGHT: DIVINE LOVE MEDIUMSHIP DEVELOPMENT RETREAT (ELAINE CHEUNG)

From August 6–13, fourteen devoted souls from across the globe came together at the Divine Love Sanctuary for an 8-day retreat dedicated to developing their gifts of mediumship and other soul-based abilities. It was a rare opportunity to step away from daily life, immerse in prayer, and open to the guidance and presence of God, Celestial Angels, and Spirit Friends.

Over the course of the retreat, participants received deeply personal messages, some offering gentle guidance, others providing profound revelations that spoke directly to their life's journey. In the safe, loving atmosphere of the sanctuary, hearts were opened, tears flowed, and long-carried burdens were released. Through prayer, healing circles, and powerful spiritual communion, layers of old "encrustations" surrounding the soul were lifted, making space for greater light, clarity, and love.

Meals were shared, stories told, and friendships forged over moments of connection and understanding. Laughter rang out as easily as tears, and in this balance, harmony blossomed among the group. The energy in the room grew palpably stronger with each passing day, as God's Love flowed abundantly and the bonds of spiritual family deepened.

By the final day, there was a sense that each soul had been touched and transformed by the experience. Hearts were lighter, spiritual gifts clearer, and the commitment to serve as channels of God's Love in the world renewed. The retreat closed with gratitude for the healing received, fellowship shared, and the undeniable presence of God's Love that had been the guiding force from beginning to end.

POETRY CORNER (ALEXANDER AND EVA PECK)

Cherish the Present Moment

How precious are times with friends, even moments that seem plain;
     For, once gone, they can never be experienced again!
 So, we need to savour and treasure our times with people;
     Using each moment to edify, for there may be no sequel.

All phenomena come from causes and conditions in constant change,
 Like a rainbow that appears when sunlight hits a shower on a range.
     Occurrences influence each other in a constant dynamic,
     And nothing just happens in life's events, so panoramic!

The myriad causes and conditions that brought about a situation,
     Can never be recreated in just that exact formation!
 One unknown day, we will each leave this life totally alone;
     Nothing we can take with us from all that we presently own.

Our family and friends, too, will all have to go their separate ways;
 So, while we have this precious life, let's seek to live fruitful days.
     There's a vital lesson and earnest advice in the lines above:
     May each of our encounters be filled with heartfelt love.

Love is patient, not self-seeking, and is always kind;
     It doesn't boast or envy; nor puts others in a bind.
     Love is not proud and doesn't dishonour others,
 No record of wrongs it keeps, but hurts and wounds it covers.

Love delights not in evil, but rejoices in the truth.
 Love never fails – in one's old age, adulthood, and youth.

PADGETT MESSAGE

TGRABJ, VOL. 2, P. 33

The power of Love to redeem men from sin and error.

I am here, Jesus.

I want to write tonight on the power of Divine Love to redeem men from sin and error.

My Father's Love is, as I have written, the only thing in all this universe that can save men from their evil natures (sic), and make them at one with Him. This Divine Love I have already explained, and when mankind will read my messages and try to understand the meaning of this Love, it will soon become more at peace with itself and with God.

This Divine Love is the one great power that moves the universe, and without it there would not be that wonderful harmony that exists in the Celestial Heavens of the spirit world; nor would so much happiness exist among the angels who inhabit these spheres.

This Divine Love is also the influence which makes men on earth think and do that which makes for peace and good will among men. It is not possessed by all men, in fact, by comparatively few, yet its influence is felt over nearly the whole earth. Even those who have never heard of my teachings, or of my Father, enjoy the benefit of its influence; in some kind of belief or faith in an overshadowing spirit of great power and watchfulness. I know that this is true, for I have visited all parts of the earth, and have looked into men's hearts and found in them some elements of belief, which evidenced that this Great Love was influencing these unenlightened people. So, notwithstanding the fact that my gospel is not preached to every creature, as I commanded when on earth, yet this Love of the Father is everywhere and all pervading.

Still, it is not received in all that fullness that enables those who feel its influence to realize that God is their Father, and they are his children, who may become members of his household in the Celestial Spheres.

No man can receive this Love unless he has faith in the Father's willingness to bestow it upon him, and truly and with earnestness prays for it.

Every man has in him the natural love which will give him great happiness in eternity as a mere spirit and an inhabitant of the spheres lower than the Celestial - even though he refuses to seek for the Divine Love that will make him a Divine angel of the Celestial Heavens.

Only this Divine Love can change the natural man into a man having the Divine nature in Love that the Father has. I do not mean that man, even though he be filled with this Love to the highest degree, will ever become a god and equal to the Father in any of his powers or attributes. This cannot be, but this Love will make him like the Father in Love and happiness and harmony. This Love has no counterpart in all creation, and comes from the Father alone. It changes not, nor is ever bestowed on anyone who is unworthy, or refuses to seek for it in the only way provided by the Father.

My experience in these Celestial Heavens is that this Love has the power to change the most hardened sinner into a true child of God, if only through faith and prayer such sinner will seek for it. Let this Love take possession of a man or spirit, and its power to purify and change the heart of that man or spirit never fails.

Your brother and friend, Jesus
