

The Prayer for the Divine Love

"Our Father in heaven, we recognize:

That You Are—are all holy and loving and merciful, and that we are the children of Your care and not the subservient, sinful and depraved creatures that our false teachers would have us believe.

"That we are the greatest of Your creations and the most wonderful of all Your handiworks, and that we are the objects of Your great soul-love and tenderest care.

"That Your will is that we become at-one with You and partake of the great love which You have given to us through Your mercy and desire that we become, in truth, Your children; and not through the sacrifice and death of any one of Your creatures.

"That You will open up our souls to the inflowing of Your love, and that then will come Your Holy Spirit to bring into our souls, this, Your love in great abundance until our souls may be transformed into the very essence of Yourself; and that there may come to us faith—such faith as will cause us to realize that we are truly Your children and that we are one with You in very substance and not in image only.

"Give us such faith as will cause us to know that You are our Father and the giver of every good and perfect gift, and that only we, ourselves, can prevent Your love changing us from the mortal to the immortal.

"May we never cease to realize that Your love is waiting for each and all of us, and that when we come to You in faith and earnest aspiration, Your love will never be withheld from us.

"Keep us in the shadow of Your love every hour and moment of our lives, and help us to overcome all temptations of the flesh and the influences of the power of the evil ones, who so constantly surround us and endeavor to turn our thoughts away from You to the pleasures and allurements of this world.

"We thank You for Your love and for the possibility of receiving it, and believe that You are our Father—the loving Father who smiles upon us in our weakness, and is always ready to help us and take us to His arms of love.

"We pray this with all the earnestness and longing of our souls, and trusting in Your love give You all the glory and honor and love that our finite souls can give."

Jesus went on to write:

"This is the only prayer that men need send to the Father. It is the only one that appeals to the love of the Father, and with the answer, which will surely come, will come all the blessings that men may need, and which the Father sees are for the good of His creatures. "So, my brothers, continue to pray and have faith, for in the end will come a bestowal of the love like unto that which came to the apostles at Pentecost. Your brother and friend, Jesus"

Suggested discipline for beginners is to read the prayer three times a day, followed by twenty minutes of silent watchful waiting [eyes closed] with gratitude. Drop by drop, or cup by cup, with each earnest prayer session, the "living waters" of God's substance, the "Divine Love," will flow in more and more, without limit, and will abide—for all eternity.
