Jesus went on to write: "This is the only prayer that men need send to the Father. It is the only one that appeals to the love of the Father, and with the answer, which will surely come, will come all the blessings that men may need, and which the Father sees are for the good of His creatures. "So, my brothers, continue to pray and have faith, for in the end will come a bestowal of the love like unto that which came to the apostles at Pentecost. Your brother & friend, Jesus"

Suggested discipline for beginners is to read the prayer three times a day, followed by twenty minutes of silent watchful waiting [eyes closed] with gratitude. Drop by drop, or cup by cup, with each earnest prayer session, the "living waters" of God's substance, the "Divine Love," will flow in more and more, without limit, and will abide--for all eternity.
