Jesus went on to write: "This is the only prayer that men need send to the Father. It is the only one that appeals to the love of the Father, and with the answer, which will surely come, will come all the blessings that men may need, and which the Father sees are for the good of His creatures. "So, my brothers, continue to pray and have faith, for in the end will come a bestowal of the love like unto that which came to the apostles at Pentecost. Your brother & friend, Jesus"

Luke 6:40 "A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone, when he is fully trained, will be like his teacher." Rom. 5:5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out His love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit has poured out His love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit whom He has given to us. Rom. 8:29 For those whom God foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 2 Pet. 1:4 Through these He has given us His very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by wild desires.

1 John 3:9 No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, because God's seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God.

Suggested discipline for beginners is to read the prayer three times a day, followed by twenty minutes of silent watchful waiting [eyes closed] with gratitude. Drop by drop, or cup by cup, with each earnest prayer session, the "living waters" of God's substance, the "Divine Love," will flow in more and more, without limit, and will abide--for all eternity.
